A Note From Pastor Andrew

Here we are a week or so into our stewardship program of Walk with Jesus and I am wondering, as I hope you are, just what that means to “walk with Jesus.” Of course, I am reminded of Footprints in the Sand. Why are there only one set of footprints because this is where you carried me Lord, but that in itself gets at the question(s) we are being asked to ponder. What does it mean to walk with Jesus, but how are we listening and giving in the midst of it all? One reason Footprints is so popular is because it speaks to us sure, but because we share it with another that may be struggling or we share it in general. The point is we share it, because it speaks a truth to us. We cannot do it alone and God is there in Christ to see us through it. Such a powerful statement, such a groundbreaking truth. It makes me wonder if we walked, listened, and gave in every way we could to the good of God and to this ministry, myself included, how great it would be the things we would accomplish. Food for thought I guess.
